 - a. Example of a good narration: Spring is here, and Becky Clover strolls down the runway in her floral, three-piece outfit. This pattern looked so perfect in the store that she had to make a top with it. The fabric for the pants was not an easy find. Many stores later, Becky found the perfect match. The jacket blends easily with the rest of the colors. Currently, Becky is President of her Poplar 4-H Club. She enjoys cooking, crafts, leadership, and – of course – sewing. Some of her favorite 4-H activities are 4-H camp and the Maryland State Fair. No matter what you do, Becky, you will always be styling in this outfit.

 - Arrive at least 15 minutes prior to the contest start time.
 - All ingredients must be prepared and measured during the contest.
 - The complete dish must be prepared at the contest (i.e. nothing can be pre-baked, etc.)
 - Kitchen and food safety guidelines must be followed:
 - a. Contestants must use the steps/ramps to get on the stage.
 - b. Practice good personal hygiene – wear a clean apron; if you have long hair, tie it back; wash hands after touching your hair or face.
 - c. Wash your hands with warm water and soap for at least 20 seconds before, during, and after preparing food; this includes after handling uncooked eggs or raw meat, poultry or seafood (or their juices.)
 - d. Do not lick your fingers or food preparation utensils.
 - e. Keep food preparation surfaces clean at all times. Sanitize the table before starting your dish.
 - f. Rinse fresh fruits and vegetables under running water just before eating or adding to dishes/recipes, even if you plan to cut or peel them because bacteria can spread from the outside to the inside during cutting or peeling.
 - g. Rub firm-skinned fruits and vegetables under running tap water or scrub with a clean vegetable brush while rinsing with running tap water.
 - h. Use one cutting board for fresh produce and a separate one for raw meat, poultry, or seafood.
 - i. Wash food packaging, such as the top of cans and the lids on jars, before you open them.
 - j. Make sure perishable ingredients are kept cold during transport and at the contest.
 - k. Never place cooked food on a plate that previously held raw meat, poultry, seafood, or eggs.
 - l. Use a food thermometer which measures the internal temperature of cooked meat, poultry, and egg dishes, to make sure that the food is cooked to a safe internal temperature. See “Safe Cooking Guidelines” at <https://www.foodsafety.gov/food-safety-charts/safe-minimum-internal-temperatures>
- For more information about kitchen and food safety, go to www.fightbac.org or https://texas4-h.tamu.edu/wp-content/uploads/food_kitchen_safety_fact_sheet.pdf
- Your dish will not be tasted if food safety procedures are not followed.
5. 4-Hers may enter only one Top Chef! competition. Top Chef! Events are open to individual contestants; teams are not permitted. For each competition 4-Hers will be given a maximum of 2 hours to create and present a finished dish. Contestants will be judged throughout the preparation phase and the final product will be evaluated. Contestants will also be evaluated on creativity of presentation. Awards will be presented at the conclusion of each competition.
 - Top Chef Challenge – Celebrate Maryland’s Bounty of Fruits and Vegetables! (4056) – Sunday, August 30, 1:30pm-3:30pm (Please Arrive by 1:15 p.m.)

Fresh fruits or vegetables that are grown in Maryland must be the star of your prepared food item. Examples of locally grown fruits and vegetables include corn, tomatoes, squash, peppers, peaches, watermelon, etc. Produce can be purchased at a grocery store, but locally grown produce may be fresher and more flavorful. No canned or frozen fruits or vegetables may be used. Contestants will develop a nutritionally balanced menu and prepare a menu item that features fresh fruits and/or vegetables during the competition. The prepared dish and a printed description of the full menu will be presented on a table space creatively decorated by the 4-Her.

Email: dgordon@marylandstatefair.com

Rules & Regulations:

1. The sale will take place on Monday, August 31, 2026 at 7 P.M. in the Cow Palace.
2. To be eligible for the Maryland State Fair Youth Livestock Sale, you must be a Maryland 4-H or FFA member in good standing and deemed eligible by the appropriate organization.
3. A 4-H/FFA member may nominate only one (1) animal for the sale selection process for each species and may sell a maximum of ONE animal that they have exhibited from the following categories: Beef Steer, Dairy Steer, Lamb, Hog, and Goat. Note: Each 4-H/FFA member will be limited to selling only ONE species.
4. The Grand Champion Market Beef Steer, Dairy Steer, Market Goat, Market Lamb and Market Hog must be sold through the Sale. Exhibitors of the Reserve Champions in these divisions may sell their animals if they choose. If an exhibitor has both Grand and Reserve Champion of the same species, only the Grand Champion will sell.
5. A Grading Committee or the Specie Official Judge will review all animals nominated for the Sale and determine which animals are to be sold. The committee's decision is final. The market beef steers and the market dairy steer will be selected at the conclusion of the steer shows. The maximum number of each species to be sold is set by the Sale Committee and is shown below along with other requirements.

Species	Max. Number Sold	Minimum Weights	Sale Unit
Market Goats	10 goats	50 lbs.	by head
Market Beef Steers	11 steers total	1,100 – no maximum weight	by head
Market Dairy Steer*	1 steer total	1,100 – no maximum weight	by head
Market Lambs	20 lambs	100 lbs.	by head
Market Hogs	25 hogs	235 - 300 lbs.	by head

*Only the Grand Champion Dairy Steer will sell.

- The top five (5) animals in each of the market species shows will be eligible for the MD State Fair Livestock Sale. Only the Grand Champion will be required to sell.
 - If nominated by the exhibitors, the Champion Rate of Gain (of all 4 species) and the Champion Bred and Owned Steer may be included in the overall selection process by the respective species judges, but do not have automatic sale slots.
 - Market Steer Eligibility: Grand (must sell), Reserve Grand, 3rd through 5th overall and any remaining Breed Champions that opt to sell. Steers to fill any remaining slots will be selected by the Beef Show Judge.
 - Market Hog Eligibility: Grand (must sell), Reserve Grand, 3rd through 5th Overall and Breed Champions (Breed Reserve Champion ONLY if Champion is not selling), Crossbred Champions, Crossbred Reserve Champions, Lottery Picks from First Place of Crossbred Classes.
 - Market Lamb and Market Goat Eligibility: Grand (must sell), Reserve Grand, 3rd through 5th Overall. Remaining slots to be determined by respective species judge.
6. All sale animals are subject to blood, tissue, urine, and other bodily fluid testing.
 7. No resales are allowed through the ring. All sale animals identified for resale are sold as a group to a packer at current market price.
 8. Refer to the respective Division for additional information pertaining to sale animal requirements.
 9. The 4-H/FFA member is expected to present their animal in the sale ring. A request for an exception must be in writing and given to the Chair by 12:00 noon on the Sunday prior to the sale. Decisions by the Maryland State Fair Management are final. 4-H/FFA Members must wear proper show attire while presenting their animals in the sale ring (see General Rules and Regulations). Sellers are responsible for delivering their animals to designated holding pens before the auction and immediately after the animal is sold. Feed and feeding implements, if needed, will need to be left with the animals, if so deemed by the appropriate department superintendents.
 10. 4-H/FFA Members are expected to recruit potential buyers for the sale.
 11. Sellers or any agent thereof are not allowed to approach buyers before, during or after the Sale to acquire a sale animal. Sellers found to be in violation of this rule will forfeit all income from the sale of the animal and will be referred to the 4-H and FFA State Fair Review Board where additional sanctions may be imposed.
 12. In the event that a carcass of a sale animal is condemned by USDA inspectors, the buyer is given a choice of a full refund of the sale price or replacement of an equal quality and weight animal of the respective species, BY THE SELLER.
 13. Sales Checks will be released to the seller upon receipt of a Thank You note from the seller to the buyer. Buyer addresses will be sent to members by mid-September. Mail completed Thank You notes to the Maryland State Fair. Lost checks or checks not cashed within 60 days of check date will be subject to a $40 reprocessing fee.
 14. A 6% commission fee will be deducted from each sale to cover costs of the Sale - i.e. promotion, pictures. Appropriate beef, pork, lamb check-off fees will also be deducted.
 15. All Sales Are Final. Terms are Net Cash at the Close of the Sale. Payments may be made by cash, Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express or personal check.
 16. Ownership and title passes to the buyer or their representative at the time of purchase. The buyer assumes ownership and responsibility for the animal at this time. Maryland State Fair, 4-H/FFA, and/or the seller is not responsible for any injury, sickness or death of the animal beyond the point of sale.
 17. The sale committee will make every effort to deliver purchased animals to their processor of choice within reason. The buyer is responsible for arranging the removal of purchased animals designated as "Haul by Buyer" from the fairgrounds. Animals must be removed by 10 am on the day following the Sale, unless made with the Sale Chairs in advance.

3. If the Grand Champion winner from a species chooses not to compete, the exhibitor must notify the superintendent immediately so the Reserve Grand Champion Showmanship winner from that species can participate.
4. The Dress Code will be 4-H or FFA dress attire.
5. Each contestant will show each species for a 3-minute time period, beginning with the species for which they were named Grand Champion winner. At the end of the time limit, the contestant will rotate onto the next species. The competition will conclude when each contestant has shown each species.
6. Contestants must provide the animal with which they won their respective showmanship division. This animal will be used by all contestants through the rotation sequence. Animal substitutions are allowed at the discretion of the superintendents.
7. Judges will be provided with a score card and judging criteria.
8. The scores from each species will be added and the contestant with the highest combined score will win. In the event that two contestants have the same combined score, a tie will be broken in this order:
 - a. The contestant with the highest score on the species that qualified him or her for All-Star Showmanship wins.
 - b. The contestant with the most consistent set of scores across all species wins.
9. Awards: Sponsored by Maryland State Fair Livestock Fund. Overall Winner of the two All-Star Showmanship Contests will receive $500. Each of the other contestants will receive $200.
10. Criteria for the contest will be:
 - a. Showmanship Characteristics– 15 points
 - b. Handling of Animal – 50 points
 - c. Knowledge of Species– 25 points
 - d. Cooperation with Judge – 10 points

Fashion Revue: Narrative Form

Pre-Entry in Fashion Revue is required (see Division X, Section 1 for more)

Send Narrative Form and Photograph electronically to Chris Rein at crein@umd.edu two weeks in advance of event.

Name: _____ County/City: _____

NARRATION: Write a 150-175 word script. Please attach your narration. Remember that it's much easier to model your garment on stage while the narrator has interesting things to say!!! Do a good job of describing your garment and your work creating the garment. You may also add what clubs you are enrolled in and the 4-H projects you carry. This will be read during the State 4-H Fashion Show. (You may submit the script used in your county/city Fashion Revue electronically. If you are at a loss for words, check out some help sheets, at: <https://extension.umd.edu/programs/4-h-youth-development/program-areas/healthy-living>)
